PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On June 11, 2008, at approximately 8:15 P.M., a Remote Video Surveillance System operator (RVSS) advised Border Patrol Agent L. Gonzalez of what appeared to be a group of six people in an area known as "Stewart's Bridge." This area is approximately two miles west of the San Ysidro port of entry and approximately 100 yards north of the Mexico/ United States International Boundary.

Agent Gonzalez responded to the reported location and after a brief search Agent Gonzalez found six individuals hiding in brush. Agent Gonzalez identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned all the individuals as to their citizenship and nationality. All six individuals including one later identified as the defendant Salvador RAMIREZ-Quebedo, admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico without any immigration documentation permitting him to enter or remain in the United States legally. At approximately 8:30 p.m., the defendant and the five other individuals were arrested and transported to Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed an immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his immigration record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on June 01, 2006 through Calexico, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was advised of his Miranda Rights and he stated that he understood his rights. Also, the defendant was willing to make a statement without an attorney present. The defendant stated under oath that he illegally jumped the United States / Mexico International Boundary fence. When again asked if he had any immigration documents in his possession that would allow him to legally enter into or be in the United States, he said, "No."
